

The Great Blue Coat Summer Write Off

Calling all Blue Coat storytellers - we have a challenge for you this summer! Create your most imaginative and interesting story using the title "The Strange Event". Each week, you need to write a part of your story until your story comes to an end in the final week.

- Submit each paragraph by the deadline by emailing to lbarry@bluecoatfederation.co.uk or submitting on Purple Mash.
- You can use my story and the picture below, but it can be about anything you want.
- Prizes available for each paragraph and overall story.

Story title: The Strange Event

Part 1: The Hook

Due Friday
30th July

- This should hook the reader, and make them ask questions.
- It should be one or two sentences long

Part 3: build up and problem

Due Friday
13th August

- Introduce the antagonist (the person against your main character).
- Is there a mystery or has something gone wrong?

Part 5: The ending

Due Friday
27th August

- Does it end happily?
- What have people learned?

Part 2: main character and setting.

Due Friday 6th
August

- Introduce the protagonist – the main person in your story
- Give a setting. It can be made up or a place you know.

Part 4: resolution

Due Friday
20th August

- How are things sorted out? Problems need to be solved to make people happy again.

