EXECUTIVE HEAD TEACHER: MR. A. ORLIK

1st March, 2021

Dear Parent/Carer,

Provision for Tawny Owls from Monday 8th March

We are really looking forward to welcoming back all the children on Monday 8th March when we will be fully open.

Recently, Mr. Harris has been advised by his doctor to shield as a medical precaution. This means that he needs to stay at home for the time-being. This medical advice will be revised at the end of March.

We are determined to maintain high quality teaching provision for the Tawny Owls class. Mr. Matthews (the Infant Head of School) and Mrs. Barrington (one of our Higher Level Teaching Assistants who is well known by the Reception children) will be teaching Tawny Owls until Mr. Harris can return. Mr. Matthews and Mrs. Barrington are both excellent practitioners so I am confident that your child will continue to be well supported with their learning as well as their well-being whilst Mr. Harris is away. In addition, Mr. Harris will be overseeing the children's progress and planning their curriculum from home. He will also be leading the class on their class screen from home every morning with Mrs. Barrington and other staff supporting the children in the room.

I am pleased that we have been able to organise our staff resources to ensure that your child has the highest quality of provision whilst Mr. Harris is away.

If you wish to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. A. Orlik
Executive Head
